LexisNexis® Best Address

When you need more than just an address.

LexisNexis® Best Address

Data designed for action.

 LexisNexis® | Health Care

In today's health care environment having a member's current address is often the foundation off which several clinical and administrative efforts are launched. Having the most accurate and up-to-date contact information also assists health care organizations meet mounting regulatory requirements and disease management goals. LexisNexis® Best Address gives you the address you need along with a host of additional data so you can have confidence that whatever the action being taken, it is done efficiently and decisively.

New needs—new solutions

As the needs of the health care industry have evolved, LexisNexis® Best Address has also evolved to meet the call for a more complete data solution. Not only has the logic been enhanced and the database supplemented, but also the Best Address solution has been developed to fulfill the health care industry's growing demands by providing more comprehensive and useful data surrounding both the member's address and the individual associated with it.

Decisions. Actions. Results.

Sometimes just having the best mailing address—street, city and ZIP code—is enough. But more often, there's still work to be done. Best Address is the first solution to provide layers of information on the address, not just on the individual. You may need to know where to mail a rebate check, where to send wellness reminders, where to send enrollment forms or may just need to check your confidence level and verify you have the correct physical address. Whatever your need may be, the Best Address solution arms you with the information you need to act on it immediately.

Your Challenge	Best Address Answer
Maintain current location data despite the increasing mobility in our society.	Best Address provides a fast, easy, and reliable way to identify, verify, locate, and contact individuals at their current or previous mailing or physical addresses.
Your organization needs to avoid the federal and financial impacts of noncompliance with regulatory requirements.	Best Address helps improve timeliness of claims processing and protect PHI by ensuring plans have the correct contact information for EOBs, follow-up calls, and mailing of certificates of coverage.
It is difficult to ensure confidence in a data provider's address.	Best Address allows you to receive the type of confidence indicator your business needs, so you'll know immediately if you can proceed with the address you receive or if you need to dig deeper.
